

News Release: Dave Hawkins Award

April 7, 2014

Moncton REALTOR® Wins Dave Hawkins Award

At its Annual General Meeting and Conference held April 2-3, 2014 in Fredericton, the New Brunswick Real Estate Association (NBREA) bestowed this year's Dave Hawkins Award on Dwayne Hayes, a Moncton REALTOR® with over 15 years in the real estate industry.

The Dave Hawkins Award is presented annually to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the real estate industry in New Brunswick.

Dwayne has had an impact on the real estate industry in Moncton and New Brunswick through his extensive professional involvement. He has been involved in Organized Real Estate at the grass roots, provincial and national levels. Part of his involvement includes being President of the NBREA Board of Directors for four years, serving on CREA's Technology Council and being part of the Board of Directors for Greater Moncton REALTORS® du Grand Moncton.

"Dwayne has a tremendous passion for the industry," said NBREA President Kari McBride. "He has been a great advocator for real estate in New Brunswick and his professional resume and achievements only highlight that."

Beyond his professional commitments, Dwayne still finds time to give back to his community. He continues to coach minor hockey in Moncton, is an accomplished instructor and presenter, and is always volunteering his time with community projects through his company and local board.

About the Dave Hawkins Award

Dave Hawkins spent 35 years in the real estate industry and was involved in the appraisal industry for more than 20 years. He served as President of the Fredericton Real Estate Board on two different occasions as well as serving as President of the New Brunswick Real Estate Association. Dave also served as Chairman of the Atlantic Provinces Real Estate Council. Dave was elected as Director of the Canadian Real Estate Association in 1978 and in 1985 was elected President of the Canadian Real Estate Association, he was the first from Eastern Canada to do so.

In memory of Dave, the NBREA has created the annual Dave Hawkins Award to recognize an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the Real Estate Industry.

About the New Brunswick Real Estate Association
